

Charming Luncheon Is Given As a Farewell To Visiting Young Woman

By OLLIE P. LANDSEN.

MISS GLORIA LAMB, a charming visitor from Chattanooga, who is here the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. C. A. Lyerly, and her uncle, Maj. Charles A. Lyerly, was the honor guest of a beautifully appointed luncheon at the Pansu del Norte, Saturday, given by Miss Anne Bucher. A patriotic motif was used in the table decorations, a great bowl of red and white carnations and blue tulips being the central ornament. The place cards bore tiny emblems of American flags. The guest list included Mrs. C. A. Lyerly, wife of Col. Martin of Camp Cody; Mrs. R. Whitaker, wife of Capt. Whitaker, of the Eighth engineers; Miss Lamb, the honor guest; Miss Nellie Bowen; Miss Alice Miles; Miss Elizabeth Stevens; Miss Sarah Bridges and Miss Edith Maloney.

Miss Lamb, accompanied by her grandmother, left today for their home in Tennessee, stopping en route to visit in New Orleans and Jackson. Miss Lamb has been stationed here for some time with the Eighth engineers, but left recently for Washington, D. C., where she will be stationed.

Why Stay Fat? You Can Reduce. The answer of most fat people is that it is too hard, too troublesome and too dangerous to force the weight down. However, in Marmola Prescription Tablets, all these difficulties are overcome. They are absolutely harmless, entail no dieting or exercise, and have the added advantage of cheapness. A large case is sold by drug-gists, entail no dieting or exercise, and can be obtained by sending price direct to the Marmola Co., 361 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich. Now that you know this you have no excuse for being too fat, but can reduce two, three or four pounds a week without fear of bad after-effects.—Adv.

El Paso Entertainers Give Program at School of Mines For Students There

THROUGH the efforts of Miss Ruth Augur, registrar of the School of Mines, a most delightful evening's entertainment was given at the dormitory for the student army training corps, Saturday evening. The program was under the direction of Miss Virginia L. Bean.

Ensemble numbers by the string orchestra which is composed of a number of Miss Bean's pupils, opened and closed the program.

Two songs were sung by the girls. "There being no piano, Mrs. Bean and Miss Bessie Copelan, with their violins, and Miss Bean with the cello, accompanied the singers.

The first was a waltz song by O. Metra, the second, "You're So Cute, Soldier Boy, in Your New Khaki Suit," was sung in compliment to the boys of the students' corps, who were wearing their khaki uniforms for the first time. Upon request, Mrs. Bean played "The Mocking Bird," a violin novelty, which introduces through the fantasy the bird thrills and imitations.

Then, under the leadership of private George Matthews, the boys gave a rousing rendition of "The Army and the Navy."

After this an informal social time was held.

A life sized crayon sketch of "Dab," drawn by Miss Bean, was hung upon the wall, and the students and guests took turns trying, with their eyes shut, to pin a paper trench cap upon "Dab's" head.

Miss Ruth Augur provided the prizes for this game, Miss Margaret Miller winning the girl's prize, a toy rifle, and private Emory White being awarded a miniature drum.

An enjoyable feature of the evening was, when after the game, the guests prevailed upon private John
